Numb 2035

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday May 18. to Thursday May 21. 1685.

Whitehall, May 18.

THe following Addreſs (which was Signed by above 2000 hands) having been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honorable the Earl of Bathe Lord Warden of the Stanneries, and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cornwall, accompanied with Sir John Arundell, Sir Joſeph Tredenham, and divers other Corniſh Gentlemen; His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very Graciouſly, with particular marks of His great ſatisfaction in the conſtant Loyalty of his Lordſhip and of the Gentlemen there preſent, and of the whole County in general.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Tynners of the ſeveral Stanneries in the County of Cornwall.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

NOthing could ſupport us under our deep and juſt ſorrow for the death of our late Gracious Soveraign, but your Majeſties happy entrance into the Imperial Throne of theſe Kingdoms, ſolely and rightfully come unto You His ſaid late Majeſties only Brother and Heir, which hath been Proclaimed in every part of this Your County, with all the Acclamations that could be expected from Loyal and Affectionate Subjects. We believe our ſelves obliged in Duty and Conſcience to render at your Majeſties Feet our Lives and Fortunes to be at your Devotion in defence of your Sacred Perſon, your Heirs and lawful Succeſſors, and the juſt Prerogatives of Your Crown againſt all who ſhall endeavour to undermine, or Subvert your Government, which your Majeſty hath been Graciouſly pleaſed to declare You will Conſtantly defend as it is by Law (moſt happily) eſtabliſh in Church and State. Humbly beſeeching Almighty God (who in his infinite Mercy hath fruſtrated that damnable Deſign to Involve theſe Kingdoms in Blood and Confuſion, by interrupting your juſt and peaceable Succeſſion in the Throne of Your Royal Anceſtors) to bleſs your Majeſty with long and happy Years to Reign over us.

There have likewiſe been preſented to His Majeſty very Loyal Addreſſes, From the Nobility, Lieutenancy, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Darby. And from the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Officers of the Militia, the Grand Jury, and the reſt of the Gentlemen of the County of Somerſet, met at the Aſſizes held at Taunton; which his Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, April 28. The laſt Letters from Dalmatia gave an account, that the Proveditore General Valier ſince the raiſing of the Seige of Singa, the ill ſucceſs whereof is attributed to the Morlaques, has put a good Gariſon with Proviſions and Ammunition into Cliſſa, a place of much importance, which it's believed the Enemy intend to attack. Signior Delfino is gone with 10 Men of War towards the Levant to hinder the Turks from tranſporting their Troops from Aſia; And the whole Fleet commanded by Captain-General Moroſini, will ſail from Corfu the beginning of the next month. The Troops of Lunenburgh which are about 3000 men, are now in quarters of refreſhment; and Veſſels are preparing to carry them to the Fleet.

Venice, May 4. The ſecond Inſtant the Troops of Lunenburgh were drawn into a body, the Prince of Hanouer being at the head of them, who afterwards gave a very Noble Collation to a great many Perſons of Quality who came to ſee the Troops. The Senate has given a Ducat to each Soldier, and to every Officer a Gold Chain; They now begin to embark and will ſail in two or three days with a great Convoy to joyn the Fleet. We have advice that 1000 new raiſed men are arrived at Bergamo; and that ſeveral Companies of new raiſed Dragoons are daily expected there. Some of the principal Officers of the Morlaques are coming thither to excuſe the diſorder they fell into upon the Turks appearing before Singa, which obliged the Proveditore General to raiſe the ſeige. The Senate have, it's ſaid, reſolved to make only a defenſive War in Dalmatia this Summer.

Dantzicke, May 1. The laſt Letters from Warſaw are of the 27th of the laſt month, and tell us, That great endeavors had been uſed to conclude the Dyet on Eaſter Eve; but that not being able to come to determination in the moſt important matters, the Dyet had been again prolonged for ſeveral days, which it's hoped will be employed more ſucceſsfully than the reſt of their time has been, that ſo at laſt the neceſſary reſolutions may be taken for the carrying on the War, which elſe will be very faintly proſecuted this Summer.

Vienna, May 10. General Palfi is arrived here from Hungary, and ſays, that the Turks of Newheuſel have offered to deliver to Colonel Heuſler all the Chriſtian Slaves that are in the place, upon condition he do in conſideration thereof ſend them a certain quantity of Corn, threatning, if he refuſe it, to kill all the ſaid Slaves, and that Colonel Heuſler had anſwered, That he would give them no Corn, and that in caſe they did deſtroy thoſe Chriſtians, or let them dye through Hunger, he would hang all the Turks that ſhould fall into his hands upon the Trees round Newheuſel. General Palfi adds that Colonel Heuſler has been informed by ſeveral perſons, got out of the Town, that the Gariſon is reduced to 1200 men. The Duke of Lorrain is expected back from Inſprucke about the middle of the next month.

Vienna, May 13. The Count de Daun arrived here the 10th Inſtant with 2000 men who came by Water from Ratisbonne; The 11th they received a months Pay and took an Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor; yeſterday they were muſtered, and to morrow they will part from hence for Hungary: They are to be incorporated into ſome of the old Regiments; 700 into the Regiment of Nigrelli, 300 into that of Wirtembergh, and the reſt into other Regiments. The Court is now at Newſtadt whither the Count de Daun is gone to give the Emperor an account of his Negotiation with ſeveral Princes of the Empire, to whom he was ſent by his Imperial Majeſty to ſolicite Succors againſt the Turks. The Letters from Hungary tell us, that ſeveral thouſand Turks are encamped near Peſt, that others are marching to joyn them, and that they make great preparations for the reliefe of Newheuſel. That Colonel Heuſler (who with the reinforcements he has received, is in a condition to make head againſt them) has poſted himſelf near Barkan, having left ſeveral ſmall Parties to ſecure the paſſages about Newheuſel, and to keep the Country people from carrying in any Proviſions; The Letters add, that Colonel Heuſler to be certainly informed of the condition of the place, had ſent thither ſeveral Peaſants with ſmall quantities of Bread, and that being come back, they had given him an account, that they had been very kindly